1. Birth Bonus will Be Provided for Your Second Child and Subsequent Children.

As a part of the city's child-rearing support measures, which aim to be the best in Japan in providing true child-rearing support, our city will provide a birth gift for the second and subsequent children.

- Eligible children for support:
 - *Second or subsequent children born on or within 6 months after April 2, 2024.
 - *The first basic resident register recorded after birth is from Gotemba city.

- Beneficiary:
 *The applicant must currently have custody of and live with the child eligible for the allowance.
 *Be listed in Gotemba city's basic resident register since the day of birth, and have the intention to continue living in the city even after application.
 * When counting children in order of birth, such as first, second and third children, children with whom there is no custody or livelihood relationship are not included.
- Payment amount:
 Payment will be made as follows depending on the number of siblings other than the child born.
 If there is one brother or sister (The child born is the second child): 30,000yen
 If there are two brothers or sisters (The child born is the third child): 100,000yen
- Application procedures etc.
 Application documents:
 - Gotemba city birth congratulations payment application and invoice for second child and later.
 * Distributed directly at the childcare support division counter.
 - A bankbook or cash card showing the applicant's (guardian) bank account, financial institution account etc.
 - Applicant's (guardian) seal
 - ID copy for applicant (guardian) such as driver's license, my number card, residence card, and etc.
 - Power of attorney (in case someone from a different household comes to the counter)
 Flow of payment:
 - ① Submit the required documents to the childcare support division counter.
 - ② Decision will be made where or not to provide the payment by city.
 * The notification from the city will be mailed to you regarding whether or not the payment will be made.
 - ③ The money will be transferred to the applicant's designated account.
